

Health Occupations Professional Essentials Acknowledgements

The Utah State Office of Education would like to extend its sincere appreciation to the following individuals for making significant contributions to the Health Occupations Professional Essentials (HOPE) course:

Curriculum Development

Jennifer Bird – Ogden High School, Ogden City School District
Thalea Longhurst – Salt Lake City School District
Tara Pollard – Fremont High School, Weber School District
Scott Snelson – Career and Technical Education, Utah State Office of Education
Lynn Westberg – Murray High School, Murray City School District

Contributors

Richard McDermott - Traemus Books
Tara White – Traemus Books

Pilot Sites

Denise Abbott – Timpview High School, Provo City School District
Donny Bills – Provo High School, Provo City School District
Jennifer Bird – Ogden High School, Ogden City School District
Cynthia Cox – Bingham High School, Jordan School District
Kristen Davidson – Northridge High School, Davis School District
Lindsey Enloe – Uintah Basin Applied Technology College
Bryan Fahrenbach – Woods Cross High School, Davis School District
Shannon Hansen – Weber High School, Weber School District
Thalea Longhurst – Salt Lake City School District
Kathy Ogden – Ogden High School, Ogden City School District
Tara Pollard – Fremont High School, Weber School District
Debbie Schilleman – Davis Applied Technology College
Jamie Stireman – Roy High School, Weber School District
Grace Vlasich – Cedar City High School, Iron School District
Lynn Westberg – Kearns High School, Granite School District

We would also like to express our appreciation to Career and Technical Education District Directors and School Coordinators, and other administrators as appropriate for their continued support and encouragement.