

Unit Four - Safe and Sound

Managing Personal Exposure Incident (Fulfills Standard 7.21)

Directions: Individually, students will create, in detail, an exposure incident that could occur in any health care setting. When each student is finished, have the students exchange the scenarios they created with another student. Each student needs to outline the plan of action they would implement for the incident they have been given following OSHA recommendations.