Program Folders and Spring Reports

Please remember to add information to your folders on CTyou.org. This will make your evaluation year much easier for you, the teacher who follows you if you go elsewhere, and for your program specialist. Your state FACS team believes this is important, so we will not be collecting Spring Reports this year in order to allow you more time to put information into CTyou. Spring Reports will return in 2018.

National AAFCS Conference

Don't miss your chance to attend the national AAFCS Conference in Dallas, TX, June 25-28! FACS professionals will discover research-based trends in personal and family finance, as well as how these trends affect other FACS areas; learn about current research assessing financial behavior and resource use among a variety of groups; discuss new and effective strategies individuals, families and communities can use to improve their financial fitness.
