1. Overview of the Summary Content Type

The H5P Summary content type requires learners to choose the correct response from a list of statements. Creators have the option to add as many lists of statements as they like.

IMPORTANT: Before creating any H5P element, turn on editing for your course site. Under the section or topic where the H5P element is to appear, click the Add an activity dropdown menu and choose Interactive Content from the list. Save your work periodically, and try out the features as you create them to help you understand how they function.

Note: See tutorial 0—General H5P Settings for instructions on how to set up H5P activities for grades and other information.

2. Adding a Summary

The following steps walk you through the process of adding a Summary activity.

Step	Action	Notes
1.	In the Name field, type in a name for the H5P interaction.	For training purposes, type: Summary.

Step	Action	Notes
2.	In the Editor section choose Summary from the dropdown menu of content types. When selecting this H5P activity for the first time, click the Use button.	The Interactive Summary editor should appear.
3.	Enter your introductory text for the summary interaction in the Introduction text field.	For training, leave this at the default: Choose the correct statement.
4.	Enter the correct statement into the first of the Statement fields.	Only the first statement is correct. For training purposes, type: A failure to listen is an internal barrier to communication.
5.	Enter at least one incorrect statement in the following Statement field(s).	You can add as many incorrect statements as you wish by clicking on the gray Add statement button. For training purposes, type: A lack of interest is an external barrier to communication.
6.	Click the blue ADD STATEMENTS button.
7.	Enter the correct statement into the first of the Statement fields.	For training purposes, type: Being a good listener during a disagreement can improve overall health.
8.	Enter at least one incorrect statement in the following Statement field(s).	You can add as many incorrect statements as you wish by clicking on the gray Add statement button. For training purposes, type: Being a good listener during a disagreement doesn't improve the other person's perception of you.
9.	Click the gray Add statement button to add one more incorrect statement in the Statement field.	For training purposes, type: Being a good listener during a disagreement doesn't strengthen your relationship with the other person.
10.	Click Save and display at the bottom of the screen when finished editing.	This step applies when using H5P content in a Moodle server, such as ctYOU.org. Saving may be different in other applications.

IMPORTANT: Be sure to test the multimedia elements you created for this tutorial. Once completed, you can use this H5P feature as a standalone, embed its iframe code in a webpage, or you can download it for use in another courses.
