Resource Center for CareerTech Advancement

The Resource Center provides support in identifying curriculum, assessments, professional development and other instructional delivery resources on request. Each month, the Resource Center features some of their favorite resources. Be sure to check back every month and see what's at the top of their list, and don't forget to check their extensive lists of resources in many different areas.

Techniques about FCS

Watch for a call for proposals from ACTE for your FCS success stories. Current plans are for one issue of Techniques to include, "Making the Case for FCS". Deadline will likely be in November or December.

Did you know...?

Lead Conference/Oklahoma Challenge

Registration is open for both conferences. Cost for Lead is $10 per officer. Chapters may bring up to 7 officers. There will be an Oklahoma Challenge workshop following each of the Lead Conferences. Oklahoma Challenge will be limited to 200 people. There is no cost for Oklahoma Challenge and lunch will be provided.

Take AIM

Take AIM will return this year on October 9th! The conference will take place at the Moore-Norman Technology Center, South Penn Campus. Take AIM (Active and Involved Members) is a high energy leadership event that showcases opportunities available to FCCLA members. It is another step in building leadership skills for the FCCLA resume! A special teacher's workshop will highlight the updated Career Connection National Program.

Oklahoma FCCLA Alumni Dues

Current adviser dues are now located in the National FCCLA affiliation site. The alumni board voted to drop dues to $10 for current FCCLA advisers. Alumni dues will now be paid with the chapter and adviser dues.

Adviser Scholarship

The Oklahoma FCCLA alumni board voted to create a scholarship for a chapter adviser wishing to attend the national Chapter Advisers Summit. The scholarship will pay for registration. The summit is sponsored by National FCCLA and takes place in January/February at the site of the National Leadership Conference. Applications can be found on the Oklahoma FCCLA Alumni website and are due September 1.
