May FCS Professional Development

May workshops will take place on May 28-30 at ODCTE. There will be no cost to attend. Bring textbooks, curriculum, activities, laptops and/or Ipads from current curriculum to collaborate with other FCS teachers and lesson plan for the new yearlong courses. Come for 1 day or all 3 days and leave with lesson plans for 2019-20 and have the remainder of your summer free!

Free Curriculum for FCS

B-Sew Inn and Babylock USA have agreed to provide every Oklahoma FCS teacher in an approved CareerTech program free access to curriculum from the Curriculum Center for Family and Consumer Sciences. What a terrific gift! Learn more about access at your Spring Professional Improvement (PI) meetings!

B-Sew Inn Educator Open House

Due to scheduling conflicts, the Educator Open House will take place the night before Summer Conference on July 31 from 6:00-9:00pm.

Flour Coupons!

May 1 is the last day to redeem Shawnee Milling coupons; please use. If you do not need the flour for your classroom, please think about using some of your FCCLA funds and the coupons to purchase flour to donate to a local food pantry.

AAFCS Annual Conference: Road Trip!

The AAFCS Annual Conference is in St. Louis June 23 -26, 2019. It's THE place to share new resources and research, address current critical issues, and exchange information and best practices across multiple practice settings and content areas. Registration for non-members is $599 and includes three meals.

NASA WEAR

NASA needs you! This April we are launching the Wearable Equipment for Averting Radiation (WEAR) Challenge to design wearable radiation countermeasures for deep space exploration. You and your middle or high school team can join the challenge and participate in NASA's exploration of deep space. Top submissions will be considered for an expense-paid trip to a NASA center. To participate in WEAR, lead teachers must register to participate in the challenge by May 10. For more details go to http://go.nasa.gov/nasa_wear or contact the WEAR team at JSC-EPD@mail.nasa.gov.

Did you know...?

District Officers

This is the last year Oklahoma FCCLA will purchase jackets for each of the elected district officers. Jackets will become the chapter's property if an officer fulfills their term. If an officer doesn't fulfill their term, jackets must be returned to the state office.

NLC Registration

Registration for the Oklahoma package is April 23rd. All national conference information can be found on the okfccla.net website under the National Leadership Conference Packet tab.
