Free Access to CCFCS Curriculum

A huge thank you to B Sew Inn and Baby Lock USA for providing every Oklahoma Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) teacher in an approved Careertech education program one year free access to curriculum from the Curriculum Center for Family and Consumer Sciences (CCFCS)! We are so grateful for their support of FCS teachers in Oklahoma and across the nation.

Oklahoma teachers can access the CCFCS curriculum by completing the form found here: <https://airtable.com/shrHPq04jJD4sUAZz>

Once you submit the form, watch for an email with log in information and a Quick Start Guide from “Salesforce on behalf of CCFCS@ttu.edu” in about 5-7 days. If you don’t see one, your school’s firewall may have refused it, so check your spam/junk folder. If you still don’t find it, contact Mara Driscoll (mara.driscoll@ttu.edu); Becky Martinez (becky.martinez@ttu.edu); or ccfcs@ttu.edu.

Training opportunities are scheduled on May 28, 29, 30 in Stillwater and at Summer Conference.

May FCS Professional Development

Registration is open and there are only a few spots left! There is no cost to attend. Bring textbooks, curriculum, activities, laptops and/or Ipads from current curriculum to collaborate with other FCS teachers and lesson plan for the new yearlong courses.

Register now for the Wool Basics Webinar

Through support from FCCLA, The Woolmark Company is hosting a webinar to provide teachers with information about the science of wool, its benefits, properties and amazing versatility. This content can be utilized in the classroom to explain how the fiber functions and moves through the supply chain, from farm to consumer. Details about other Woolmark educational resources will be shared as well. Please join us!

Date: May 16, 2019

Time: 4:00-5:30pm EST
