Happy 2020!

Homebaking Association:

capitol

FCS Day at the Capitol will return in 2021. If you would like to take students to the state capitol on your own during the 2020 legislative season, please do! Please remember to review proper behavior in a public buildings i.e. stay with the tour group, quiet voices, no squeaking of shoes, no running, jumping or climbing! We've found FCCLA official dress makes an impact, so you might consider that or professional dress for your students, should you choose to attend. If it fits in your schedule, please consider going during FCCLA week, Feb. 10 – 14. Keep in mind Mondays through Wednesdays see the most activity at the capitol. Thursday at lunch, most senators and representatives head home.

State Convention Early Bird Registration

Register by January 31 to receive the $15 per person registration fee. Registrations received after this date will be $25 per person. State STAR Event participants must be registered for convention before they will be allowed to compete at state events.

FCCLA Affiliation

If your chapter still has Pending beside the chapter name, check with your finance office to see if payment has been submitted. National FCCLA has locked down the website to all chapters that are not yet affiliated. That means no access to the Competitive Events manual, lesson plans and other valuable resources. All affiliation invoices, adviser and student, must be paid to register for State Convention.
