

Architect

Job Description

An architect designs buildings, such as houses, apartments, schools, hospitals, and offices.

What they do

- Draw sketches and create models of buildings.
- Design remodeling plans so old buildings look like new.
- Develop plans for the construction of buildings.
- Pick out materials for construction.

Where they work

- Architectural Firms
- Construction Sites

Cool tools they use

- Computers
- Building Materials
- Rulers
- Calculators

Subjects they study

Math, Science, and English Language Arts

MyCareerShines.org