

Graphic Designer

Job Description

A graphic designer uses words and images to explain an idea.

What they do

- Make designs that include words, drawings, and photos.
- Create designs for advertisements, magazines, billboards, and brochures.
- Select colors, pictures, and types of letters for print or computer designs.
- Teach graphic design to students.

Where they work

- Advertising Agencies
- Corporations
- Book, Magazine and Newspaper Publishers
- Schools

Cool tools they use

- Computers
- Graphic Tablets
- Cameras
- Design Software (helps to create instructions that tell a computer what to do)

Subjects they study

English Language Arts, Art, and Computer Coding

MyCareerShines.org