WHY A COLLEGE DEGREE IS NOW POSSIBLE?

The School of Hospitality and Tourism Management (HTM) in partnership with University Dining Services (UDS) created this LIFE program to make college accessible, and affordable.

WHAT IS THIS PROGRAM ABOUT?

HTM and UDS will provide you with quality education alongside a free meal plan and paid on-campus job in dining services for four years. An optional opportunity is available to earn a Certified Culinarian designation through the America Culinary Federation.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF THIS PROGRAM?

FREE MEAL PLAN

$1,550 in value per semester (Fall and Spring) up to four years. (approx. $12,400)

PAID ON-CAMPUS JOB

Through University Dining Services (UDS) rotating through different positions (competitive salary; approx. 20 – 25 hours per week). Possible promotions: Student Supervisor, Student Assistant Manager, Student Manager, Student Sous Chef, and Student Chef. (approx. $25,600)

DEDICATED OPPORTUNITIES FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

HTM has multiple dedicated scholarships for students receiving $12,000 on average that are supported via private donations as well as industry partners, and the Oklahoma Restaurant Association.

FINANCIAL AID

Multiple financial opportunities available via Federal Aid (FAFSA, Pell Grants, etc.) and State programs (OK Promise, etc.).

WHY SHOULD YOU CONSIDER THIS OPPORTUNITY?

If you have passion, dream, and a goal-driven personality related to all aspects of food services, then you have a real opportunity to be a future leader in Restaurants, Hotels, Country Clubs, and associated Hospitality Service providers.

INTERNSHIP & JOB PLACEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

HTM has an industry-based Advisory Board alongside strong industry liaison with numerous partners that offer internships and employment opportunities to give you a career advantage.
