CareerTech Rules

The Oklahoma Department of CareerTech (ODCTE) establishes a comprehensive set of rules governing the operation of career and technology education programs throughout the state. These rules are meticulously crafted to ensure quality training and a strong foundation for Oklahoma's workforce. It's important to note that CareerTech's administrative rules undergo an annual review process to maintain relevancy and effectiveness. Following this revision, the Oklahoma Legislature plays a vital role by providing official approval for the updated rules. This collaborative approach guarantees that CareerTech's regulations reflect current needs and legislative oversight.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Waiting too long to introduce FCCLA
- Trying to do too much too quickly

- Not asking for help or using available resources on ctYOU

End-of-Year Outcome

- A structured, engaging classroom where students:
 - Demonstrate real-world skills
 - Participate in leadership opportunities
 - Connect learning to careers and life beyond high school
- And a teacher who:
 - Has a clear system in place
 - Feels confident in pacing and instruction
 - Is ready to refine and grow in year two (and beyond)

School Processes

Considerations Specific to Your School

Substitutes. To ensure a smooth substitution process, you should find out how your school handles substitutes. You may want to know how to request a substitute, whom to contact, how far in advance you should request, how lesson plans are handled, and what to do in emergency and non-emergency situations.

Buses and Transportation. If you need transportation services, you should know who your transportation director is and how to request transportation services. You may want to inquire about the availability of smaller vehicles that you can request. Also, if you wish to drive yourself, you should know how to turn in your driving record.

Purchase orders and 412 Money. To purchase any item, you should know who your financial secretary is and how to request and write purchase orders. It's important to know how far in advance you should request and write POs. (i.e., groceries, classroom supplies, curriculum, etc)

Activity Fund. To know your current activity fund balance, you should contact your activity fund secretary. You may also want to inquire about how fundraisers are handled within your district.

Chapter T-shirts. To get chapter t-shirts printed, you should know who prints your school's shirts. You should also remember to follow the FCCLA Branding Rules.

Inventory. To keep track of your inventory, you should follow your school's parameters. If you have items bought with Carl Perkins, you should label them accordingly, as the inventory requirements for Carl Perkins items are different from those for regular classroom inventory. You can contact ODCTE for the current requirements.

Dear FCS Students and Parents,

I want to take this opportunity to say how glad I am to have you in class this year. I have many plans for learning this year that I think you will find challenging and interesting.

Included is a copy of our course syllabus and classroom expectations. These expectations were created to foster a classroom environment where everyone can learn. On the syllabus you will find an overview of the Family and Consumer Sciences program, the goals for the course, information about Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA), the units of study for this class, and the grading scale.

All students enrolled in a FCS class complete a sewing projects and an interpersonal communications project. Students will need to purchase sewing supplies at an approximate cost of $10.00 to $15.00, and I will let you know in advance when you will need to purchase these supplies. We have chosen to donate our finished projects to a worthy charity, so students can count the hours they spend on this project as community service hours.

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) is the CareerTech student organization for Family and Consumer Sciences Education. Since FCCLA is so closely integrated into the FCS curriculum and provides members opportunities to extend learning beyond the classroom, you are expected to pay your FCCLA dues. The dues for the year are $25.00, which includes a chapter T-shirt. FCCLA is the only student organization with family as the central focus, and the only student organization in which high school members serve as officers at all levels including the national level. As a member of FCCLA you will have the opportunity of a lifetime in leadership and community service.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at the above phone number. Once again, I am looking forward to getting to know you and being a part of your education. Together, I know we will have a great year!

Sincerely,

FCS Basics Syllabus EXAMPLE

Students will receive one to two graders per week for classwork assignments, daily participation, and bell work. There will be at least one test, project, presentation, and/or lab every two- three-week period. Students are required to complete a sewing project, and an interpersonal communication project that counts as a test grade.

Materials: Come prepared to class with pencils, pens, paper, and a library book. Every student will be required to complete a community service project by sewing an item that is donated to charity. The student cost for supplies will be approximately $10-$15. The hours spent on this project will also count as community service hours.

Attendance: It is your responsibility to locate the make-up file in its designated location to receive the assignments that you missed. Per the student handbook, for every day of an excused absence, you have two days to turn in the make-up work. For an unexcused absence, the assignments must be turned in the following day.

If a student is present when a test date is announced, they are expected to take the test even if they are returning from an absence. Tests are not placed in the make-up file. Students must come to the teacher and schedule a make-up time. Failure to schedule a make-up test may result in a zero-test grade. In the event a student has to miss valuable class participation time due to an excused absence, an alternate assignment will be provided.

Incomplete work will not be accepted. Students are expected to re-do work to meet quality. Any incomplete or re-do assignments must be turned in at least one week prior to the end of the grading period. Tutoring is available during lunch and after school.

Turning in Assignments: All students will turn assignments in, before or on their due date, in their designated tray. I will not check folders, notebooks or binders for assignments to be graded.

Frequently Asked Questions

Do I have to cover all the units of a course?

Yes, all objectives and units should be covered within the allotted semester or year. Some courses have assessment tests attached and test questions would cover all units except for career units/sections.

Do I turn in lesson plans?

Lesson plans are not turned into ODCTE except for 3 lesson plans of choice per course into the 5-year evaluation folder which is online. Your local school may require you to turn in weekly lesson plans (most will be through an online system).

How do I pay for groceries?

- ▶ Grocery items for food labs will be purchased using the 412/314 money sent to the school finance office 4 times throughout the year.
- ▶ Local grocery stores, Wal-Mart, etc. are used to purchase food items through a school credit card or PO.
- ▶ Schedule time with the administration or school finance person to determine the school's process.

Recommendation: keep a running total using an Excel sheet, etc. to track the amount of money spent for the year on the FCS program. Each program should spend the total amount by the end of the year on the FCS program.

How do I teach a foods lab?

- ▶ Teach the unit/chapter first.
- ▶ In most instances, you do not want the entire class to be in the lab at the same time.
- ▶ Divide the class into groups (recommend no more than 3 in a group)
- ▶ Depending on the number of kitchens/ovens determine how many groups will cook per day.
- ▶ Prepare assignments related to the area of study for other students to be working on when not in the food lab; e.g., research project and/or presentation or other assignment over the area of study; study time and taking the test over the unit, etc.
- ▶ Students will swap activities the next day.

Can I use 412/314 money to purchase fabric for student sewing projects?

- ▶ No, if a student will be taking the project, they must purchase their own fabric and supplies.
- ▶ Sewing supplies that can remain in the classroom such as scissors, tape measures, seam rippers, etc. may be purchased with 412/314.
- ▶ If sewing projects will be donated for a community service project, those fabric supplies would need to be purchased with activity fund money such as FCCLA. (FCCLA funds are usually made through fundraisers.)

Work-Based Learning

What is Work-Based Learning?

WBL is a partnership between education and business to create a skilled workforce for now and for the future. The skills needed in today's business world are very diverse; it can be difficult to meet the demand with the traditional school-based model.

In a WBL model, schools provide classroom theory and supportive technical training in a student's chosen career plan and businesses provide students the opportunity to experience and master their skills in a live setting. There are many different types of WBL experiences from mentoring a student at school, to job shadowing, internships, or apprenticeships at the business.

WBL experiences provided by business interaction creates a relevance to the technical training that is difficult to achieve in the classroom. WBL provides students critical insights to help them be successful whether they choose college or career.

Opportunity for Students

- ▶ Touch, feel, and experience a career to see if it is really what they want to do
- ▶ Develop the soft skills that businesses demand
- ▶ Gain work experience to prepare them for their chosen career
- ▶ Get their foot in the door that might lead to being offered a job
- ▶ Build a network with professionals in their career
- ▶ Observe professionals in their chosen career
- ▶ Get exposure to careers in their community

Opportunity for Business

- ▶ Provide employers the opportunity to influence their future workforce
- ▶ Build a pool of skilled workers
- ▶ Serve as a recruitment strategy for the best and brightest emerging workers
- ▶ Allow business to experience potential employees in an educational setting
- ▶ Create a positive reputation in the community for providing growth opportunities for students

Opportunity for Schools

- ▶ Provide students with valuable experiences to prepare them for their careers
- ▶ Create closer ties with businesses and community
- ▶ Increase student motivation
- ▶ Increase student enrollment
- ▶ Reduce dropout rates

How do I get involved in WBL?

You can contact your local CareerTech technology center or high school and start the discussion about how a WBL partnership can create opportunities for you.

Another way to get connected is go to the Oklahoma Department of Career and Technology Education website.

www.okcareer.tech/wbl

On our website you will find a more detailed overview of WBL. You will also find supportive resources on how to participate in different types of WBL from middle school, high school, technology center, and even in a business's current workforce.

The CareerTech system is dedicated to growing WBL across the state because we know how powerful opportunity can be.

Labs

How to manage a food lab with students split between the lab and classroom

Preparation is Key

- ▶ Planning: Clearly define the learning objectives for both the lab activity and the classroom assignment. Ensure the classroom work complements the lab activity.
- ▶ Grouping: Divide the class into manageable groups (3-4 students) for the lab. Consider student skill levels and personalities when grouping.
- ▶ Station Setup: Prepare the lab stations with clear instructions, pre-measured ingredients if needed, and designated equipment.
- ▶ Safety Briefing: Conduct a thorough safety briefing before the lab session, covering proper hygiene, equipment use, and hazard awareness.

Managing the Split Class

- ▶ Rotation Schedule: Create a rotation schedule where one group works in the lab while the others complete the classroom assignment.
- ▶ Classroom Support: Assign a teaching assistant or another responsible student to oversee the classroom activity.
- ▶ Circulation: Move between the classroom and lab regularly to monitor progress, answer questions, and address any issues.
- ▶ Clear Communication: Clearly communicate expectations to both groups. Highlight key points for the lab group and provide clear instructions for the classroom assignment.

Optimizing Learning

- ▶ Circulating Demos: Consider incorporating short, circulating demonstrations in the lab for key techniques. Demonstrate to one group while the others observe, then rotate.
- ▶ Classroom Check-ins: During lab rotations, check on the classroom activity to ensure students are on track. Address any confusion and provide additional support if needed.
- ▶ Lab Documentation: Require students in the lab to document their process on the lab plan.
- ▶ Debriefing: After the rotations, have a group discussion to share experiences, discuss challenges, and reinforce learning objectives.

Additional Tips

- ▶ Utilize Technology: Consider recording demonstrations or using instructional videos for classroom reference.
- ▶ Student Leaders: Assign responsible students as lab group leaders to assist with tasks and maintain focus.
- ▶ Flexibility: Be prepared to adjust the schedule or provide additional support if needed.

Labs

How to manage a food lab in your FCS class

Planning and Preparation

- ▶ Choose recipes that are age-appropriate, meet learning objectives, and consider allergies or dietary restrictions.
- ▶ Create a detailed lab procedure with clear instructions and timelines.
- ▶ Prepare a shopping list and pre-measure ingredients (especially for younger students) to save time.
- ▶ Set up stations with equipment and ingredients for each group. Consider student dietary needs at this point.

Student Expectations

- ▶ Review lab safety rules, including hygiene, proper knife handling, and heat safety.
- ▶ Discuss cleanup procedures and waste disposal.
- ▶ Explain how students will be evaluated – following recipes, teamwork, sanitation, etc.

During the Lab

Organization

- ▶ Assign roles within groups (e.g., timekeeper, reader, chef).
- ▶ Circulate and monitor progress, answer questions, and address any safety concerns.
- ▶ Have a designated area for used equipment and dishes.

Engagement

- ▶ Encourage teamwork and communication within groups.
- ▶ Pose questions to check for understanding and address any misconceptions.
- ▶ Consider incorporating short quizzes or activities to reinforce learning.

After the Lab

Clean Up

- ▶ Ensure students properly clean their stations and utensils.
- ▶ Wipe down surfaces and disinfect equipment.
- ▶ Review proper food storage and disposal procedures.

Reflection and Assessment

- ▶ Have students complete a lab report or reflection sheet.
- ▶ Conduct a taste test (if appropriate) and discuss the outcome.
- ▶ Offer opportunities for self-assessment and peer evaluation (optional).

Additional Tips

- ▶ Visual Aids: Post visuals like recipe steps or safety posters for easy reference.
- ▶ Time Management: Practice the recipe beforehand to ensure it fits within the class period.
- ▶ Flexibility: Be prepared to adjust the plan based on student pace or unforeseen circumstances.
- ▶ Positive Reinforcement: Acknowledge students' effort, teamwork, and successful completion of tasks.

By implementing these strategies, you can create a safe, efficient, and engaging learning environment in your FCS food lab.

Labs

FCS Safety Tests

In Family and Consumer Sciences programs, safety is our top priority! To ensure everyone's well-being in lab classes, all students are required to pass a safety test with a score of 100% before participating in any lab activities. This applies to all FCS labs, including:

- ▶ Food Labs: Students be working with large and small appliances, various equipment, and many ingredients. The safety test will cover proper food handling, sanitation and hygiene, as well as safe use of kitchen equipment.
- ▶ Sewing Labs: Students will be using sewing equipment, notions, and various types of technology. The safety test will ensure students understand how to operate these tools safely and avoid accidents.
- ▶ Childcare Labs: Learning about childcare requires a safe and nurturing environment. The safety test will cover topics like age-appropriate equipment, nutrition, recognizing hazards for young children, and creating a safe play area.
- ▶ General Classroom Safety: Safety isn't limited to the labs! This test will also cover general classroom procedures like what to do in an emergency, proper use of classroom equipment, and maintaining a clean and organized workspace.

By passing the safety test, students demonstrate their understanding of how to stay safe in classroom labs and contribute to a positive learning environment for everyone.

Students need to pass the test(s) with 100% each year they are in a Family and Consumer Sciences lab class.

*There are a variety of ways to help students gain the 100%.

Chapter Adviser Status: Please review and update the status of Chapter Advisers in your chapter. This question will only appear if your chapter has more than one active adviser.

A blue checkmark icon symbolizes an “active” status. To make an adviser “inactive,” select the blue checkmark icon to the right of their name and confirm the prompt. The checkmark icon will appear as a crossed-through circle once an adviser is made inactive.

Making an adviser inactive removes their ability to log into the chapter and ensures that your chapter is not charged adviser dues for that individual.

Primary Chapter Status: Chapter Advisers may advise multiple chapters. A Chapter Adviser’s “primary” chapter must be set for reporting purposes. If you advise in multiple chapters, this will not change your status in your other chapters. Advisers whose profile is linked to only one chapter may proceed to the next question. In this instance, the chapter listed will be preselected as your primary chapter.

If you see a chapter listed here that you no longer advise in, please select the blue checkmark icon to the far right of the chapter name under the Status column, then confirm the prompt. This will make your profile inactive in that chapter. If you actively advise in multiple chapters, you should see them listed here and should keep your status the same. If you currently advise in

Reporting for CareerTech

<https://oklahoma.gov/careertech/products-and-services/imd/ctims.html>

Salary and Teaching Schedule: The salary and teaching schedule report is a document used in Oklahoma specifically for CareerTech educators. It combines two important pieces of information for the upcoming school year:

- ▶ Salary: This details your compensation, likely referencing the state minimum salary schedule or your district's local pay scale.
- ▶ Teaching Schedule: This outlines the courses you'll be assigned to teach, including estimated enrollment figures, and creates your official schedule for the year.

In short, this report gives you a clear picture of both your financial compensation and your teaching workload for the upcoming year.

CESI: CESI stands for Continuous Enrollment System Information. These reports track student enrollment in CareerTech programs across the state. This data helps officials understand the impact of funding and make informed decisions.

Follow-up: The follow-up report tracks what happens to students after they graduate from a CareerTech program in Oklahoma. This helps them see how well their programs prepare students for careers. This info helps CareerTech improve their programs and make sure they're giving students the skills they need to succeed.

You should get an email from ctimssupport@careertech.ok.gov with a link to set-up your CTIMS account. If you do not find the email, check your spam/junk folder.

Contact ctimssupport@careertech.ok.gov for assistance.
