

FCCLA + Dolly Parton's Imagination Library

Growing Readers, Strengthening Families, Building Communities

FCCLA's focus on families, leadership, community service, and youth engagement aligns closely with Dolly Parton's Imagination Library. Together, we can help more Oklahoma children develop a love of reading and enter school ready to succeed.

What Is Dolly Parton's Imagination Library?

- Children receive a free, age-appropriate book every month from birth to age five.
- More than 3 million books have been mailed to Oklahoma children since the program launched statewide.
- Families can enroll at no cost in participating areas.
- The program is made possible through partnerships with local communities, schools, libraries, nonprofits, businesses, and volunteers.

★ IMPACT

Just $15.60 provides a child with 12 books for an entire year.

Why Early Literacy Matters

Children who are read to regularly develop stronger language and literacy skills, are better prepared for kindergarten, and are more likely to become lifelong readers.

How FCCLA Members Can Get Involved

🎯 LEAD

- Organize literacy awareness campaigns.
- Develop and lead chapter service projects focused on early literacy.

👉 SERVE

- Volunteer at literacy events and family reading programs.
- Support local outreach and enrollment efforts.

🗣️ ADVOCATE

- Share the importance of early literacy with schools and community partners.
- Promote Imagination Library through social media and community events.

📺 GIVE

- Host fundraisers to support local Imagination Library programs.
- Sponsor books for children in your community.

Erin Bell

Director of Early Literacy
Oklahoma Partnership for School Readiness
ebell@okschoolliteracy.org
405-657-9210

